Estonian Discussions on Economic Policy

The aim of the papers is to analyse and assess the current economic developments in the European Union and to draw conclusions from them from the aspects of economic policy and also concerning the main elements of the political order, if appropriate.

Revista Produção e Desenvolvimento

Contribuir para a disseminação da pesquisa no âmbito da Engenharia de Produção, divulgando trabalhos que envolvam as diferentes temáticas que compõem a área e que espelhem a grande diversidade metodológica, disciplinar, interdisciplinar e geográfica das pesquisas nacionais e internacionais. Como segundo eixo de interesse busca-se estimular o debate acadêmico sobre o tema Desenvolvimento, destacando a questão da política pública relacionada aos diversos setores da economia, tais como educação, transporte, lazer e desporto e saúde. Também sob uma outra abordagem acadêmica de desenvolvimento se pretende entender o processo multifacetado de relações entre a teoria e a prática em instituições de educação, divulgando as experiências acadêmicas e os caminhos formativos que contribuem para a materialização da indissociabilidade entre ensino, pesquisa e extensão.

Periodica Polytechnica Social and Management Sciences

Periodica Polytechnica Social and Management Sciences is a peer reviewed scientific journal published by the Faculty of Economic and Social Sciences of the Budapest University of Technology and Economics. It was founded in 1993. The journal publishes both research and application oriented papers, in the area of management and social sciences. A special interest is given to papers addressing issues of the Central European region and of emerging markets. Each paper is evaluated in a double-blind review process (both peer reviewers and authors remain anonymous in the review process), with two reviewers for a paper. Papers are published free of charge for authors.
